

Section 05 Schedule of Daywork Rates

SECTION 05 SCHEDULE OF DAYWORK RATES

5.0 Schedule of Daywork Rates

- 5.1 Where work cannot be properly measured and valued, the Tenderer shall be allowed daywork rates at the rates inserted in Table of this schedule.
- 5.2 The rates for labour entered by the Tenderer in Table 1 are to include for the following:-
- a) The amount of wages actually paid to the employee when carrying out day work;
 - b) The amount of bonus, incentive payments and other emoluments actually paid to the employees when carrying out dayworks;
 - c) Overheads and profit as defined in section 5.5 below;
 - d) All ordinary plant as defined in Section 5.6 below.
- 5.3 The rates for materials used in dayworks shall be based upon the nett invoice cost, after deducting all discounts for materials delivered to site, plus the percentage entered by the Tenderer in Table 2 for overheads and profit as defined in section 5.5
- 5.4 The rates for special constructional plant and equipment entered by the Tenderer in Table 3 are to include for the following:
- a) Hire charges where applicable
 - b) Fuel, grease and lubricating oil
 - c) Maintenance
 - d) Depreciation
 - e) Consumable stores
 - f) Spare parts
 - g) Insurance and road taxes where applicable
 - h) Servicing and all other running costs
 - i) Supervision
 - j) Cost of driver, operators and attendants
 - k) Transporting to and off site
 - l) Installation and adaption
 - m) Overheads and profits as defined in section 5.5 below
 - n) All loss, expense, costs and damages etc.

Payment will made only for such time as the plant is engaged upon daywork operations and shall exclude all standing time.

- 5.5 Overheads and Profit are to be included in the rate entered by the Tenderer in respect to labour, materials and plant in Table 1, 2 & 3. The term “overheads” is defined below as including:
- a) Head office charges
 - b) Site supervision and site staff
 - c) All Government and statutory taxes and levies
 - d) Overtime
 - e) Time lost due to inclement/adverse weather
 - f) Travelling time and expenses
 - g) Subsistence allowances
 - h) Safety, health and welfare facilities
 - i) Third party and Employer's liability insurances
 - j) All obligations on the part of the Tenderer concerning Central Provident Fund Contributions and the construction levy
 - k) Holiday and sick pay
 - l) Tool allowances
 - m) Use, repair and sharpening of small tools
 - n) All non-mechanically operated plant, erected scaffolding, staging and trestles, artificial lighting, protection clothing, storage facilities and the like that may be in general use on the site
 - o) All other liabilities and obligations whatsoever.

Section 05 Schedule of Daywork Rates

- 5.6 Ordinary Plant to be included in the rates entered by the Tenderer in respect of labour and materials in Table 1 & 2. The term “Ordinary Plant” is defined as including petrol driven portable pump set, diesel driven portal compressor, heavy breaker, diesel driven concrete or mortar mixer, diesel driven generator set, diesel dumper, long tipper, mobile crane, wheeled or tractor type hydraulic excavator, welding and cutting set, electric welding set etc.

Table 1 – Labour

Description	Rate per hour ($)
Work to be stated as per contract provided

Table 2 – Materials

Percentage to be added to net invoice cost of materials for overheads and profit.	%
---	---

Table 3 – Special Constructional Plant and Equipment

Description of Plant and Equipment	Capacity	Stated whether owned or hired	Timeline